

Exhibit 6302 MEALS IN EMERGENCIES OR AFTER HOURS (6200)

(May 2003)

CIRCUMSTANCES	FEEDING ARRANGEMENTS	FINANCIAL RESPONSIBILITY
Crews working an emergency from an incident base/camp	Provide the same fire meal given to other personnel	CDF
Crews working an emergency from their camp on a regular work day	Provide regular CYA food ration Fire meal requested by Incident Commander	CYA  CDF - Purchase food or reimburse CYA on SPO
Crews working an emergency from their camp and leaving or arriving at least one hour before or after normal work hours	CYA will feed an in-camp fire meal	CDF - Purchase food or reimburse CYA on SPO
Crews traveling to or from an emergency	Provide meal in restaurant. Arrange through ECC in advance. Isolate crews, limit menu selection. (Must have adequate custodial coverage) Fast food - eat at rest stop or park Fire meal at another conservation camp with advance arrangements	CDF - SPO or Calcard  CDF - SPO or Calcard  CDF - Purchase food or reimburse CYA on SPO
Conservation camp used as incident base/camp	Provide fire meals for all wards	CDF - Purchase food or reimburse CYA on SPO
Conservation camp used as a staging area for stand-by crews	Provide fire meals for all wards	CDF - Purchase food or reimburse CYA on SPO
Crews on "Move up and Cover" assignment working regular work day	CYA will provide regular food ration	CDF-If crews from Dept. other than CYA CYA - If crews from other CYA camp or facility.
Note: When providing meals in a camp at other than normal meal times as much advance notice as possible and information concerning meal needs should be given, normally through regular dispatch channels.	Regular CDF and other agency personnel may be provided meals in camp along with ward crews if such meal provision is expedient and desirable.

(see Table of Contents)